2. PREAMBLE

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 ("PAIA") came into operation on 9 March 2001. PAIA seeks to give natural and juristic persons the right of access to records held by either a private or public body, subject to certain limitations, in order to enable them to exercise or protect their rights.

Section 51 of PAIA obliges private bodies to compile a manual to enable a person to obtain access to information held by such private body and stipulates the minimum requirements that the manual has to comply with.

This manual constitutes ASL Group's PAIA manual.

3. INTRODUCTION TO ASL GROUP

ASL Group Incorporated, ASL Group Trust Services Proprietary Limited and ASL Group Advisory Proprietary Limited, the "ASL Group Group", respects and protects the personal information and privacy of others

4. OBJECTIVES OF THIS MANUAL

The objectives of this manual are:

- to provide a list of all records held by the legal entity;
- to set out the requirements with regard to who may request information in terms of PAIA as well as the grounds on which a request may be denied;

- to define the manner and form in which a request for information must be submitted; and
- to comply with the additional requirements imposed by the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 ("POPIA").

5. INFORMATION REGULATOR'S GUIDE

An official Guide has been compiled which contains information to assist a person wishing to exercise a right of access to information in terms of PAIA and POPIA. This Guide is made available by the Information Regulator (established in terms of POPIA). Copies of the updated Guide are available from Information Regulator in the manner prescribed. Any enquiries regarding the guide should be directed to:

6. ENTRY POINT FOR REQUESTS

PAIA provides that a person may only make a request for information, if the information is required for the exercise or protection of a legitimate right.

Information will therefore not be furnished unless a person provides sufficient particulars to enable ASL Group to identify the right that the requester is seeking to protect as well as an explanation as to why the requested information is required for the exercise or protection of that right. The exercise of an individual's rights is subject to justifiable limitations, including the reasonable protection of privacy, commercial confidentiality and effective, efficient and good governance. PAIA and the request procedure contained in this manual may not be used for access to a record for criminal or civil proceedings, nor should information be requested after the commencement of such proceedings.

The Information Officer has been delegated with the task of receiving and co-ordinating all requests for access to records in terms of PAIA, in order to ensure proper compliance with PAIA and POPIA.

The Information Officer will facilitate the liaison with the internal legal team on all of these requests.

All requests in terms of PAIA and this manual must be addressed to the Information Officer using the details in paragraph 1 above.

7. AUTOMATICALLY AVAILABLE INFORMATION

Information that is obtainable via the ASL Group website about ASL Group is automatically available and need not be formally requested in terms of this manual.

The following categories of records are automatically available for inspection, purchase or photocopying:

- newsletters; and
- marketing and promotional material.

8. INFORMATION AVAILABLE IN TERMS OF POPIA

In terms of POPIA, personal information must be processed for a specified purpose. The purpose for which data is processed by ASL Group will depend on the nature of the data and the particular data subject. This purpose is disclosed explicitly at the time the data is collected. Please also refer to the ASL Group Privacy Policy for further information.

11. REQUEST PROCEDURE

If you are satisfied that you are entitled to make a request for access to certain information under PAIA, the request procedure outlined below must be utilised.

11.1. Completion of the prescribed form

Any request for access to a record in terms of PAIA must substantially correspond with Form C of Annexure B to Government Notice No. R.187 dated 15 February 2002 and should be specific in terms of the record requested.

The prescribed form is attached to this manual for ease of reference in Annexure A.

A request for access to information which does not comply with the formalities as prescribed by PAIA will be returned to you.

11.2. Proof of identity

You will, in addition to this prescribed form, be required to submit acceptable proof of identity such as a certified copy of your identity document or other legal forms of identity.

11.3. Payment of the prescribed fees

There are two categories of fees which are payable:

- The request fee: R50
- The access fee: This is calculated by taking into account reproduction costs, search and preparation costs, as well as postal costs, in accordance with the prescribed regulations.

Section 54 of PAIA entitles ASL Group to charge a fee for enabling it to recover the cost of processing a request and providing access to records.

Where a decision to grant a request has been taken, the record will not be disclosed until the necessary fees have been paid in full.

11.4. Timelines for consideration of a request for access

Requests will be processed within 30 (thirty) days, unless the request contains considerations that are of such a nature that an extension of the time limit is needed.

Should an extension be required, you will be notified, together with reasons explaining why the extension is necessary.

11.5. Grounds for refusal of access and protection of information

There are various grounds upon which a request for access to a record may be refused. These grounds include:

- the protection of personal information of a third person (who is a natural person) from unreasonable disclosure;
- the protection of commercial information of a third party (for example: trade secrets; financial, commercial, scientific or technical information that may harm the commercial or financial interests of a third party);
- if disclosure would result in the breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party;
- if disclosure would jeopardise the safety of an individual or prejudice or impair certain property rights of a third person;
- if the record was produced during legal proceedings, unless that legal privilege has been waived;
- if the record contains trade secrets, financial or sensitive information or any information that would put ASL Group (at a disadvantage in negotiations or prejudice it in commercial competition; and/or
- if the record contains information about research being carried out or about to be carried out on behalf of a third party or by ASL Group.

Section 70 of PAIA contains an overriding provision. Disclosure of a record is compulsory if it would reveal (i) a substantial contravention of, or failure to comply with the law; or (ii) there is an imminent and serious public safety or environmental risk; and (iii) the public interest in the disclosure of the record in question clearly outweighs the harm contemplated by its disclosure.

If the request for access to information affects a third party, then such third party must first be informed within 21 (twenty one) days of receipt of the request. The third party would then have a further 21 (twenty one) days to make representations and/or submissions regarding the granting of access to the record.

12. THE INFORMATION OFFICER'S DECISION AND YOUR RECOURSE

If the Information Officer decides to grant you access to the particular record, such access must be granted within 30 (thirty) days of being informed of the decision.

There is no internal appeal procedure that may be followed after a request to access information has been refused. The decision made by the Information Officer is final. In the event that you are not satisfied with the outcome of the request, you are entitled to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to take the matter further.

Where a third party is affected by the request for access and the Information Officer has decided to grant you access to the record, the third party has 30 (thirty) days in which to appeal the decision in a court of competent jurisdiction. If no appeal has been lodged by the third party within 30 (thirty) days, you must be granted access to the record.
